

Arizona Book Awards 2008

sponsored by the
Arizona Book Publishing Association

The Arizona Book Publishing Association (ABPA) is sponsoring its sixth awards competition, with a celebratory banquet on Saturday evening, May 10, 2008 at which the awards will be presented. The 2008 Arizona Book Awards help to promote and support quality work created by Arizona authors, produced by Arizona publishers, or written about Arizona and to recognize excellence in craft and creation in the Arizona book industry.

Qualifying work must meet ONE of the following criteria:

- Published or designed by an Arizona Publisher or ABPA member
- Written by an Arizona author
- Designed by an Arizona designer (design categories only)
- Set in Arizona

Books must have been published between January 1, 2007 and December 31, 2007.

Entries must be received by February 29th, 2008. There will be no exceptions.

An Embodying Arizona Award will be chosen from the entries that meet all three (3) criteria.

Most Valuable Person: Outstanding ABPA Member

We present the Most Valuable Person award to a member who has demonstrated a sincere commitment to the Arizona Book Publishing Association, not just in time, but also in quality of work. We recognize this individual for his/her contributions over many years, but especially over the past two years. Our organization is stronger because of this person's leadership and insight. We are truly honored to recognize this person this evening.

Excellence in Publishing

Presented to an individual who exemplifies the word "excellence." To be a success in this industry requires an investment of diligent effort and time. To rise above the throng and truly achieve "excellence" also requires vision. From concept to execution, the recipient of this award strives for excellence and achieves it.

Korwin Award

Established in 1999, this award was created as a special award of honor, named after Alan Korwin for his visionary leadership in establishing the Arizona Book Publishing Association. This award is given in recognition of an act or service for ABPA that takes the organization in a new direction, or impacts the association so vitally, it would not be the same without the experience.
